On this 21 day of August 1857 entered according back of Congress by Lyttleton Waddell, Sen: a map the title of which is in the words and figures following, to wit: "Cook's new map of the State of North Carolina, constructed from actual surveys, pu-blicate contributions, and authentic public documents, procured for the purpose under a special resolution of the General Assembly of the State by Wm. O. Cooke, A.M. Principal of the N.C. Institution for the Deaf & Dumb and the Blind" - The said Waddell claiming the same as proprietor

Thomas W. Moore Clk.

Deed sent
A.W. Cooke
Raleigh N.C.
Western District of Virginia
Staunton.

Whereas Wm. O. Cooke on the 30th October 1855, in consideration of thirteen hundred & eleven dollars, then due and owing by him to Edward A. Harding conveyed to said Harding all his copy right, title claim and demand of, in and to a map entitled "Cook's new map of North Carolina" then in the progress of construction, covenanting to finish said map and authorizing said Harding to convey the copy right thereof, in his own name, or in the name of Cooke for the said Harding benefit, said Harding at the same time covenanting to reconvey his said right, whenever said sum, interest & expenses, were realized by the sale of said copies.

And whereas said Cooke thereafter for value received conveyed to Lyttleton Waddell of Virginia, the residue of his right, title and interest, to said copy right, after satisfaction of said Harding's claim, and said Waddell in pursuance of authority given by said Cooke A.D. 1857, did secure in his own name said copy right by proper proceedings, in the Clerk's Office of the Western District of Virginia at Staunton.

Now therefore the said Waddell in consideration of the premises and of one dollar to him paid, has bargained sold and assigned and lawfully bargained sold & conveyed unto

The said Harding and his assigns all the said map, and all his copy right, title interest, property, claim and demand whatever of in and to the same. To have and to hold the said map copy right and all the profit benefit and advantage that shall or may arise by & from printing, publishing and vending the same unto the said Harding and his assigns, on the terms and conditions of the whole period of time allowed by the acts of the Congress of the United States in that behalf provided.

And the said Waddele likewise bargains and sells and assigns unto the said Harding and his assigns for the considerations above mentioned, all the finished copies of said map, now in said Cooke's possession as agent of said Waddele, and he hereby authorizes said Harding to comply fully with the obligations imposed on said Cooke, by a contract entered into by him before the securing the above mentioned copy right and Samuel Pierce

Provided nevertheless, that when the said Harding shall have sold a sufficient number of the copies hereafter to be published to defray the expenses of publication, and sale including commissions to agents, advertisements and other similar charges & further to repay himself, the said sum of $1511.03¹⁰⁰ with interest from the 30th October 1855 (one thousand eight hundred & fifty five) then and in that case, his deed and the interest in the copy right hereby conveyed, shall determine the rule of void - and said Harding shall recover all the maps unsold to said Waddele, just retaining the expenses of publishing the same.

Said Harding, in his part covenants for himself, thus assigns that he will in no case sell, or allow to be sold, any copy of said map for a less price than eight dollars without the written consent of said Waddele or his assigns.

Said Harding further covenants that the net proceeds of the sale of all the maps already finished shall be applied by him first in payment of the debt due J. H. Colton & Co of New York, for manufacturing said map and the balance of said proceeds, shall be paid to said Waddele for defraying of other expenses already incurred.

In testimony whereof the said Waddele hath hereunto set his hand & seal this 3 day of May 1855
